

Tercentennial Planning Meeting

Wed. March 21

4pm

Selectmen's Meeting Room

Truro Town Hall

We need your help and your imagination! We're planning the Tercentennial Celebration for Truro- our town is going to be 300 years old in July 2009. Please come to this informational meeting prepared to share your ideas or your organization's contribution or participation plans. We're looking for input from every segment of our community—boards, committees, civic and community groups, clubs, commercial ventures and businesses, private individuals – no thought is too big or too small - this is our town, let's make this the best celebration we possibly can! Call 508-487-3520 or e-mail peters.jane@comcast.net today.
